NOTICE OF OBLIGATIONS OF BAIL

COPY FOR ARRESTED PERSON

Bail Act 1977 Section 17
Bail Regulations 2022 Reg. 8 - Form 1 & 4

Prosecuting Agency : Victoria Police

The conditions of bail are set out in the undertaking of bail which this notice accompanies.

PERSON ON BAIL: IMPORTANT INFORMATION - DO NOT IGNORE THIS

You have been *charged with one or more offences / *arrested on one or more warrants and allowed out of custody on bail. You should immediately seek advice from your legal practitioner, Victoria Legal Aid [Telephone 1300 792 387 Website: <http://www.legalaid.vic.gov.au>] or a Community Legal Service, if you have not already done so.

You must:

- come back to court at the day and time specified in the undertaking, and continue to attend as required by the court; and
- not commit any offences while you are on bail; and
- do all the things set out in your conditions of bail

If you do not come to court when required you may be arrested, held in custody, and brought back to court. You may also be charged with the offence of failure to answer bail which has a maximum penalty of 2 years imprisonment.

If you commit an indictable offence on bail, you may be arrested and charged with the offence of committing an indictable offence while on bail. This offence has a maximum penalty of 30 penalty units or 3 months imprisonment.

If you do not comply with your bail conditions you may be charged with the offence of contravening certain conduct conditions. This offence does not apply to conditions about bail support services. This offence does not apply to children. This offence has a maximum penalty of 30 penalty units or 3 months imprisonment.

Your bail conditions continue to have effect until they are varied or revoked, or until your matter is finally determined by a court.

If you are subject to a family violence safety notice, and it is impossible for you to comply with both the notice and your bail conditions, you must comply with the notice. Where it is possible to comply with both the notice and any of your bail conditions, you must comply with both.

If you are subject to a family violence intervention order, and it is impossible for you to comply with both the order and your bail conditions, you must comply with the order. Where it is possible to comply with both the order and any of your bail conditions, you must comply with both.

If you are subject to a recognised DVO, and it is impossible for you to comply with both the recognised DVO and your bail conditions, you must comply with the recognised DVO. Where it is possible to comply with both the recognised DVO and any of your bail conditions, you must comply with both.

If you commit an offence on bail, or do not comply with your conditions of bail, you may be arrested, held in custody, and brought to court. The court will decide whether to release you on bail again, or remand you in prison. The amount of your surety or deposit may have to be paid to the court.

SURETY: IMPORTANT INFORMATION - DO NOT IGNORE THIS

If the person that you have provided a surety for commits an offence on bail, or does not comply with their conditions of bail, you will be liable to pay to the court the amount of surety you provided.
