NOTIFICATION OF DEMERIT POINTS

You have incurred demerit points for the below offence(s). This letter is to advise you that, if you keep incurring demerit points, you might reach or exceed the demerit point limit and face having your driver licence/learner permit suspended for at least three months.

What happens if I get too many demerit points?

The demerit point limit is 12 points within any three-year period (and, for probationary or learner drivers, five points within any 12-month period).

If you reach or exceed the demerit point limit, your driver licence and learner permits may be suspended for the period of three or more months depending on the number of points.

Probationary drivers who have their licence suspended for accumulation of demerit points have their probationary period extended by the suspension period.
