

INTERIM ORDER
APPREHENDED DOMESTIC VIOLENCE ORDER - Tory KILBORN
Crimes (Domestic and Personal Violence) Act 2007

Tory KILBORN, you must follow the orders below. It is a criminal offence not to follow these orders. You could be arrested by police and charged. If you are convicted, you could go to prison for up to 5 years and be fined up to $16,500.

You could also be charged with other criminal offences. If you are convicted of these offences, you could receive a much higher penalty.

You must follow these orders everywhere in Australia.

You must follow these Order(s) until it is revoked or a further order made by the Court becomes effective.

The Order(s) have been made to protect Barran DODGER.

You must follow these orders even if Barran DODGER doesn't want you to or tells you that you don't need to. If you attempt to do any of the things below, it will still be a criminal offence called a breach.

You must attend Wyong Local Court - Crime on 14 May 2026 at 09:30 AM.

If you fail to attend the court may make orders against you or issue a warrant for your arrest to bring you before the court.

Orders about behaviour

1. You must not do any of the following to Barran DODGER or anyone he has a domestic relationship with:
 - A) assault or threaten him,
 - B) stalk, harass or intimidate him,
 - C) intentionally or recklessly destroy or damage any property or harm an animal that belongs to or is in the possession of Barran DODGER

For example:

- You must not do any of these things in person, through another person, or through electronic communication and devices (for example, by phone, text messages, emails, Facebook or other social media, or GPS tracking).
- You must not do or say anything that may make Barran DODGER feel frightened, or feel that you may harm him or damage his belongings in any way, including any jointly owned property and pets.

Orders about contact

2. You must not approach Barran DODGER or contact him in any way, unless the contact is through a lawyer.

For example:

- You must not approach or contact Barran DODGER in person or through electronic communication (for example, by phone, text messages, emails, or Facebook or other social media).
- If Barran DODGER contacts you and you reply, no matter how many times he contacts you or the reason for doing it, you will be breaching this order.

Orders about where the defendant cannot go

9. You must not go within 100 Metres of:

- A) any place where Barran DODGER lives, or
 - B) any place where he works, or
 - C) any place listed here
- Unit 2 of 55 Archbold Road, Long Jetty.

For example:

- You are not allowed to go within 100 Metres of the boundary of those places.
- If you have been living at this address and need to pick up any of your belongings you can apply to the court for a Property Recovery Order or you can contact police.

Most relationships do not include fear, control or violence. You are now part of a minority of people who has one of these orders, and this is recorded on the NSW Police system.

When children are exposed to violence in the home, they are much more likely to suffer from depression, anxiety and aggression, and they do worse at school.

Many people take this as a turning point.

If you would like to talk to someone about managing your emotions or stresses, help is available. Call:

- Men's Referral Service on 1300 766 491
- Relationships Australia on 1300 364 277

If you breach this order:

- You could go to prison for up to 5 years and be fined up to $16,500
- You could be charged with other criminal offences (for example, assault or intimidation), as well as the breach of this order. If convicted of these offences, you could receive a higher penalty such as more time in prison.

Immediately take all firearms and prohibited weapons, along with related licences and permits you have to the police. If you keep any of these, you could be in breach of this order and could also be charged with other criminal offences.
