6. NEED FOR A GUARDIAN

NCAT can only appoint a guardian for a person who has a disability that affects their decision making capability if:

- there is a current need for someone else to make personal decisions for them
- decisions cannot be made informally, and
- it is in the person's best interests for an order to be made.

A. WHY ARE YOU ASKING FOR A GUARDIAN TO BE APPOINTED?

Explain why you think a guardian should be appointed, including any attempts made to informally resolve issues.

Barran Dodger's situation is increasingly precarious, marked by homelessness, systemic neglect, and severe health challenges. He urgently requires the appointment of a guardian to assist with daily activities and critical personal decisions. Each day, Barran struggles to manage his life, as his circumstances continue to deteriorate, placing him at significant risk. His mental and physical health have been severely compromised, not only due to the denial of his necessary ADHD medication, which has led him to self-medicate with street drugs, but also because of the extreme neglect he has suffered. Barran endured syphilis for a year before it was treated during a forced hospitalization, and now, he is at risk of acquiring HIV because he has been unable to obtain a prescription for the preventative medicine PrEP. These health risks, combined with his disability, severely impair his decision-making capabilities, making it impossible for him to navigate his life without support.

Barran ' s situation has been exacerbated by systemic neglect. Despite multiple attempts to resolve his issues informally, Barran has faced institutional barriers at every turn. He has been banned from the Australian Financial Complaints Authority (AFCA), and the Australian Human Rights Commission (AHRC) has refused to investigate the human rights abuses he has

B. DO YOU BELIEVE THIS MATTER IS URGENT BECAUSE THE PERSON IS AT RISK?

☐ NO

☒ YES Provide details.

Barran is at very severe chronic high risk of homelessness and suicidal ideation.
Yes, I believe this matter is extremely urgent because Barran Dodger is at significant risk. His current circumstances, including homelessness, severe mental health challenges, and systemic neglect, have placed his life in imminent danger. He has already expressed a profound intention to end his life if left in homelessness again, and his history of a previous suicide attempt underscores the seriousness of this threat. Additionally, Barran is at risk of acquiring HIV because he has been unable to obtain a prescription for the preventative medicine PrEP, and he has suffered from untreated syphilis for a year due to extreme neglect. The denial of his ADHD medication has led him to self-medicate with street drugs, further compromising his health.
Barran also faces targeted harassment, including V2K (Voice to Skull) technology and

5. OTHER PEOPLE IN THE PERSON'S LIFE

6. NEED FOR A GUARDIAN

A. WHY ARE YOU ASKING FOR A GUARDIAN TO BE APPOINTED?

Most adults with disabilities are assisted with decision making by family members, friends or service providers. These informal decision making arrangements often meets the person's needs. NCAT must be satisfied that:

- the person the application is about has a decision making disability
- the disability results in the person being partially or wholly incapable of managing themselves, and
- there is a need for the person to have a guardian appointed.

If the person already has informal decision making or an enduring guardianship appointment in place that is working in their best interests, NCAT may not make an order.

A guardian is not authorised to make decisions about the person's financial affairs. If you think this type of decision need to be authorised you should apply for a financial management order.

B. IS THERE A RISK TO THE PERSON?

You should tell NCAT about any possible risk to the person. It may be a risk of:

- Becoming homeless
- Being abducted (removed without authority) from their usual residence
- Has received an offer of accommodation that if not accepted soon will expire
- Being physically abused or neglected
- Being exposed to verbal abuse, intimidation or conflict
- Requiring or refusing medical treatment or services
- Engaging in behaviour exposing them to harm or danger
- An exploitative relationship.

C. WHO DO YOU SUGGEST FOR THE ROLE OF GUARDIAN?

You can suggest a guardian, however NCAT is not bound to appoint that person. You should talk to the person before nominating them. The person must be over 18 years and suitable for the role because of their own experience.

If there is no one suitable or willing to take on the role of guardian, NCAT will appoint the Public Guardian. The Public Guardian is only appointed as the 'guardian of last resort'. For more information visit the Public Guardian website.
