THE RATS WILL COME

On the Psychology of Betrayal and Institutional Collapse

Dr. Richard William McLean · Wyong Local Court · 14 May 2026

Dr. Richard William McLean AKA Barran Dodger — PhD · Whistleblower · Disabled LGBTQ+ Advocate

ABN 78 833 496 164 · barrandodger.com · 9 May 2026

Description: A forensic-psychological essay on the documented mechanism of betrayal in corrupt structures, the defection cascade across history, and a named prophetic prediction of institutional collapse. Written by Dr. Richard William McLean (Barran Dodger) ahead of Wyong Local Court, 14 May 2026.

THE THESIS

When a corrupt institutional structure begins to collapse, the individuals who participated in maintaining it do not depart as a unified front. They leave through a defection cascade — a documented psychological mechanism in which individuals detect the approaching accountability, calculate their personal exposure, and begin to separate from the sinking structure. The rats, as the essay names them, come. And they come in a documented order.

THE MILGRAM MECHANISM

Milgram's obedience research (1963) documented that ordinary people, under institutional authority pressure, will inflict documented harm on others. The institutional participants in Dr. McLean's 35-year persecution were not individually monstrous. They were, in Milgram's framework, obedient to institutional authority structures that directed them toward harmful conduct. The Milgram mechanism operated across 13 agencies.

THE FESTINGER MECHANISM — COGNITIVE DISSONANCE AND DEFECTION

Festinger's cognitive dissonance theory predicts that individuals who have participated in documented harm against a person they later discover was correct will experience escalating psychological discomfort as the evidence of their error becomes undeniable. The 484,000+ download figure and the ICC submission are the evidence that triggers dissonance. The defection cascade follows dissonance.

THE PROPHECY — NAMED INDIVIDUALS

This essay names specific individuals whose defection from the institutional structure protecting the documented misconduct is predicted on documented psychological and strategic grounds: Sukhi Tear, Brett Butler (AbleCare), NSW Police officers involved in the non-incident-number conduct, and family members named in the IChooseSilence declaration. The rats will come. The document they come to is the archive. The archive is ready.
