WHAT THIS PROVES

The Forensic Significance of the Barran Dodger Archive

Revised April 2026 — Blockchain Sealed

Dr. Richard William McLean AKA Barran Dodger — PhD · Whistleblower · Disabled LGBTQ+ Advocate

ABN 78 833 496 164 · barrandodger.com · 9 May 2026

THE CORE FORENSIC FINDING

The 2,304-document blockchain-sealed archive of Dr. Richard William McLean (Barran Dodger) constitutes documentary proof — not assertion, not allegation, not narrative — of the following: systematic persecution directed by Australian government agencies against a protected whistleblower across 35 years; coordinated misuse of psychiatric systems to suppress protected disclosures; deliberate financial destruction through institutional guardianship; documented assassination conspiracy involving a named former SAS operative; and institutional non-response to all of the above at every available level of complaint escalation.

- It Proves Systematic Persecution

2,301 documents from 40+ agencies producing the same outcome across 35 years is the operational definition of systematic persecution. The Master Evidence Register proves this predated every individual NDIS provider. The pattern was set before Sukhi Tear, Phillip Glass, Brett, or Rachel ever appeared. Independent agencies producing identical responses is not coincidence. It is coordination.

- It Proves No Comparable Australian Case Exists

63 independent zero-contradiction forensic analyses. 675 propositions tested. 2,301 evidence documents. 845 Bitcoin blockchain records. 410,503+ downloads across 2.5 months. There is no comparable Australian whistleblower case — in scope, in documentation, or in distribution. The archive is sui generis in Australian legal history.

- It Proves Crimes Against Humanity — Article 7 Threshold

Article 7 of the Rome Statute covers persecution as a crime against humanity when directed against a person on political or other grounds by a state or state-like apparatus. The documented facts — 35 years, 40+ agencies, coordinated denial, financial destruction, forced exile, and an assassination-adjacent network — meet the threshold. Submission has been made. Receipts exist.

- It Proves Refugee Status Eligibility

Forced exile from one's country of nationality, documented persecution by state institutions, and a credible well-founded fear of further harm constitute the threshold for refugee status under the 1951 Convention. Every element is documented. Every document is blockchain-verified. UNHCR Geneva has received the filing.

- It Proves Institutional Acknowledgment Through Silence

Under the evidential weight principles recognised by the ICC, UNHCR, and every common law court, the sustained failure of named parties — with full access to legal counsel and governmental authority — to challenge, correct, or rebut the documented record constitutes tacit acknowledgment. The record stands unchallenged. The record is the verdict.

- It Proves the Archive Is Permanent

410,503 downloads across 174 documents, 6 continents, with 845 Bitcoin blockchain records. The archive is distributed across thousands of independent devices, international jurisdictions, institutional servers, and the Bitcoin blockchain itself. There is no mechanism — legal, technical, or political — by which this record can now be suppressed. This is permanent.

BLOCKCHAIN ARCHIVE INTEGRITY

Every document in this archive is cryptographically sealed on the Bitcoin blockchain via the OpenTimestamps protocol (~15,000 independent nodes worldwide). The SHA-256 hash of each document is permanently and immutably recorded. Any alteration of any document produces a different hash — tampering is mathematically detectable. This record is independently verifiable by any person on Earth at opentimestamps.org. No government, court, or institution can erase, alter, or suppress it.
